our adventure, YOUR WINES SINCE 1910

The most consumed sparkling wine in Brazil

The 111-year-old Família Salton is the oldest winery in activity in Brazil, leading the national sparkling wine market since 2005 (NIELSEN). It was the first and only Brazilian brand to conquer the top ranking in the Brazil Wine Brands Power survey (Wine Intelligence, 2018).

Its labels, marketed in more than 30 countries, accumulated around 100 national and international awards just in the last three years.

A reference in sustainability, Família Salton has an Innovation, Research & Development Center that, in partnership with universities, designs solutions from the field to the industry, ensuring the best practices and encouraging the development of the entire wine chain in Brazil.

With an extensive and diversified portfolio, the company's operations are divided into four business units: Vinícola Salton, in Bento Gonçalves (RS); Azienda Domenico, in Santana do Livramento (RS); Enoteca Família Salton, in São Paulo (SP); and Complexo Presidente, in Jarinu (SP).

DOMENICO

Reserva da Família Salton

Domenico – Reserva from Família Salton is our concept brand. Its name honours the immigrant Antonio Domenico, patriarch of the founders of Vinícola Salton, who arrived in Brazil in 1878.

They are special labels, produced through experimentation, where winemakers are free to rethink the processes at each stage, and make small changes to express the uniqueness of each element involved, from the soil to the fruit, from fermentation to maturation.

SPIRITS

Theros GIN

TRADITIONAL & RED FRUITS FLAVOURED

The gin, created in Holland, gained fame in England and, for some years, it has been part of the list of favourite drinks around the world, increasingly present in cocktail menus in bars and on the shelves of stores, for those who dare to prepare the famous gin and tonic at home. You can count on a new and surprising option: Theros, an unpretentious and cost-effective gin, ideally made for events and celebrations with friends and family.

VORUS VODKA

TRADITIONAL & RED FRUITS FLAVOURED

The word Vorus is a variation of vörös, of the term véres, which means blood. Salton's first vodka, launched in 2016, is inspired by the essence of the traditions and histories of bravery and heroism in the Scandinavian region, historically known for its epic battles amid displays of courage and honour.

Presidente

TRADITIONAL & HONEY FLAVOURED

Made with a selected alcoholic distillate from sugar cane and oak.
